

Time to Listen – Reader

An essential reference resource for all sports and leisure organisations' designated persons whether National / Organisational Lead Child Protection Officer or Club Facility / Welfare Officer

Time to Listen – Reader will provide you with the key information you need to help you fulfil your role and responsibility to safeguard children and young people.

Developed by the NSPCC Child Protection in Sport Unit (CPSU), the Time to Listen training pack will be available to all sports and leisure organisations from 2004. The Reader, which is an integral part of the pack, is available to be purchased separately now.

Time to Listen – Reader includes information about:

- Roles and responsibilities – sports organisations
 - designated persons
 - statutory agencies.
- Legal framework, government guidance and best practice in working together to safeguard children.
- Responding to concerns about poor practice, bullying and abuse of children and young people.
- Putting safeguards in place to create an enjoyable and safe sporting environment.

For further information about the Time to Listen training pack, please complete the order form overleaf.
